Frequently Asked Questions:

1 Are there separate dress codes for Day and Night?

There are no separate dress codes. However, you may want to wear more business casual/comfortable clothes for the Presentations at Cleveland Art Museum, then change into evening wear prior to arriving to the Aquarium/Windows on the River dinner event.

2 Am I expected to dress in the Art Deco era?

While the theme of the dinner event is Jazz Age/Art Deco, you are not required to dress in tuxedos and ball gowns. Semiformal attire is simply requested.

3 Where do I park at the Cleveland Art Museum (CMA)?

There is both street parking and CMA parking decks available. The CMA parking deck is $14 per car for the day.

4 Where do I park at the Cleveland Aquarium/Windows on the River (WOTR)?

WOTR has a large parking lot located at the Cleveland Powerhouse. Parking will be complementary.

5 If I'm staying at the Hyatt at the Arcade, where do I park?

The Hyatt offers Valet parking for $57/night. They do not offer self-parking; however, there are several paid parking garage options within two blocks of the hotel. The 200 Public Square Garage at 320 East Superior Ave., located just west of the hotel, is recommended. Pricing can vary depending on events in the city.

6 When should I arrive at the CMA? And what entrance?

Please leave ample time to park your car and walk to the SOUTH TERRACE of the CMA for the group photo taking place at 11:45am. We will walk as a group to the North Entrance upon conclusion of the photo.

7 Can I bring in a water bottle &/or snacks into Gartner Auditorium?

There will be a beverage break consisting of fruit infused water, coffee and iced tea midway through the presentations. There is a Provence Cafe located within the CMA which offers snacks for purchase.

8 How do I get from the CMA to WOTR?

Typically, a 19-minute drive (~7 miles). Google map link:
